

November 2020

1 st	Give thanks to God for the beautiful Autumn colours of His creation and for the amazing sunsets we enjoy in Clevedon and the surrounding area
2 nd	Please pray for the USA – for God’s wisdom in the days ahead
3 rd	Please pray that the churches in other countries (especially Albania), feel and share the same support with each other and know our thoughts and prayers are with them
4 th	Pray for our guests at the seniors event ‘Good News’ today – that they would experience God’s welcome and love among us
5 th	Please pray for Jen, as she goes forward in her Christian life after her baptism
6 th	Remember those who are struggling emotionally and financially at this time - may God bless them with friends who can share their troubles
7 th	Praise God and thank him for all his many gifts, our families, homes, church and the town and country in which we live
8 th	Thank God for all those who lead our church, bless them and give them wisdom. May they be very conscious of the Holy Spirit supporting them and guiding their actions
9 th	We pray for the national and international charities and organisations bringing support and relief to the starving and homeless in the world, may we be used to encourage and support
10 th	Pray for God rich blessing on our schools and colleges. The students, particularly those away from home for the first time and those struggling with remote learning. The teachers who have had to adapt to new ways of working. Thank God for them all
11 th	Pray for residents and staff in our many care homes
12 th	Please pray for the team manning the Chaplaincy stall on Thursday mornings
13 th	Pray for NHS staff as the number of Covid cases rise and a busy winter is rushing towards us
14 th	Please pray for the people living in the areas which are under Tier 3 restrictions and those living on towns on the borders
15 th	Pray for staff and pupils in schools as they seek to cope with new ways of working and learning
16 th	Thank you, Lord, for the love and support of our church family, help us find ways to share this on our "front line"
17 th	Pray that UK and EU negotiations result in an agreement respecting both bodies and serving their respective communities fairly
18 th	Pray for the leaders of the church as they meet for vision formation and planning for 2021
19 th	Pray for the planning and creating of Destination Bethlehem 2020 as we produce a resource for schools
20 th	Join in with our 2020 prayers today and on Zoom this evening at 8.20pm
21 st	For Uni students who are stressed in lockdown, and who may be feeling lonely without opportunities to make friends and settle in. Help them know your friendship and joy
22 nd	Please pray for El Shaddai – a charity in India helping homeless children on the streets, including handing out food parcels at the moment. For resources and wisdom
23 rd	For the towns in lockdown - that they can manage to get the infections down
24 th	Pray for the new chaplains joining the Clevedon chaplaincy team
25 th	Pray for each of us serving God on our Frontlines / 104 hours of sent mission and ministry
26 th	For India and the poorer people of the world as they can’t pay for medication, isolate, or even feed themselves
27 th	Pray for Antony as he works with the Town Council and others looking at how we can celebrate Christmas as a town this year

28 th	Please pray for our children and youth ministries – that each youngster would experience the Holy Spirit and come to know Jesus as their Lord and Saviour
29 th	Please pray for us all as we step into the season of advent – that we would receive wisdom and courage and use every opportunity to give the reason for the hope we have
30 th	Pray for our local business owners and their staff – that they would remain hopeful in the season ahead and thrive in every circumstance

Psalms 141:2

"May my prayer be set before you like incense; may the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice"
